

VESTKYST JAZZ

A stylized, graphic illustration of a jazz band performing. The scene is set against a red brick wall. In the foreground, a saxophone player in a yellow shirt and dark suit is playing a saxophone. Behind him, a double bass player in an orange shirt is visible. To the left, a blue silhouette of a person is partially shown. The overall style is bold and graphic, using a limited color palette of yellow, orange, blue, and black.
